IMPORTANT DATES

- Call for Nominations Opens on March 15, 2026
- Deadline for Submission: May 15, 2026
- Judging Period:
 - Preliminary from May 16 to June 16, 2026
 - Final judging on June 19, 2026
- Awards Ceremony: October 22, 2026 at the National Museum of Natural History

JUDGING PROCESS

The judging process will consist of two stages:

1. Preliminary Judging
 - All complete and eligible entries will undergo an initial screening by a Preliminary Review Committee, composed of museum professionals and cultural practitioners tasked to:
 - Verify eligibility and completeness of documentation
 - Assess entries based on merit and relevance
 - Short list entries for Final Judging (must score a minimum of 75% to qualify to the final judging)
 - Only entries that meet the criteria and demonstrate outstanding potential will advance to the final judging.
 - Entries not selected at this stage will be notified respectfully.
2. Final Judging

A panel of distinguished experts in museum work, heritage conservation, design, and educational institutions will evaluate the shortlisted entries.
3. All finalists will start at 0 score as preliminary scores will have no bearing in the final judging.
4. Finalists will be determined based on the following criteria and must score a minimum of 75% to qualify for the final judging:

- Design and Innovation (40%)
 - Attainment of Project Objectives (35%)
 - Accuracy and Truthfulness (15%)
 - Effective Use of Budget (10%)
5. The panel may conduct virtual interviews, request clarifications, and/or visit sites to aid in final evaluation.
 6. There will be one (1) final judging day only.
